Abstract: College life is a key stage for a person to establish a correct world outlook, values and outlook on life. Incorruption Education plays an important role in this critical period. It will affect the behavior choice of college students when they go out of the campus and become the backbone of the society, and will eventually play a role in the inheritance of Chinese excellent traditional culture and the reconstruction of social fashion. The ideological and Political Theory Course (hereinafter referred to as the ideological and political course) is also the key course of College Students' integrity education. How to make college students' integrity education give full play to its effectiveness in the ideological and political course is the focus of this paper. The author believes that only by combining the integrity education with the world outlook, outlook on life, ideals and beliefs, socialist core values, moral concepts, legal knowledge and other knowledge systems in the ideological and political course, and reasonably integrating the integrity education into each chapter of the theory, the combination of theoretical explanation and teaching practice, can the effectiveness of College Students' integrity education be realized in the ideological and political course.

Put Forward a Question

(1) The call of the CPC Central Committee on the education of College Students' integrity

Corruption is a major problem in the current social development of our country, which needs an urgent outcome. In January 2013, Xi Jinping put forward in the eighteen Discipline Inspection Committee: "corruption is a social cancer." If the problem of corruption is allowed to grow, it will eventually lead to the death of the party and the country's corruption. "

Corruption in the society constantly affects college students, and the corruption behaviors and phenomena of college students emerge in endlessly, such as appraising excellent students, inviting guests and gifts, bribing teachers to revise their scores, misappropriating class fees, cheating in examinations, writing homework on behalf of others, playing attendance in place of their own names, using their power for personal gain, and forging false certificates. If not, these corrupt behaviors of College Students To stop and guide correctly will seriously affect college students to establish a correct outlook on life and values.

After the 16th National Congress of the Communist Party of China, the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China (CPC) pointed out from a strategic point of view that "we should strengthen comprehensive governance, not only to treat the symptoms and root causes, but also to punish and prevent them. We should establish and improve a system to prevent and control corruption that is suiFigure for the socialist market economic system, integrating the improvement of the system with the strengthening of education and supervision." Subsequently, the state has issued various documents on integrity education, as shown in Figure 1:

With the promulgation of the above opinions and documents as an opportunity, college students' Incorruption Education has been raised to the height of national strategy, and its research has been strengthened in order to respond to the call of the Party Central Committee on College Students' relevant education.□ □

College Students are Important Objects of Incorruption Education

Xi Jinping pointed out at the Peking University Symposium: "the college students who are studying in Colleges and universities are about 20 years old. By the year 2020, many people were less than 30 years old when they built a well-off society in an all-round way. By the middle of this century, many people were less than 60 years old. In other words, to achieve the two centenary goals, you and millions of young people will participate in the whole process. "

In the long road of life, college life is a crucial stage. In this stage, it is necessary to establish correct values and outlook on life. Today's complex social environment and confusing trend of consciousness make some young students lose their way. In the critical period of the growth of young college students, if the first button of incorruptible education is not fastened properly, the remaining buttons will be buckled incorrectly, which will not only affect the growth and development of young students, but also affect the rejuvenation of the Chinese nation. Therefore, the integrity education of college students is imminent.

Ideological and Political Course is the Key Course of College Students' Incorruption Education

General secretary Xi Jinping pointed out: "Ideological and political theory course is the key course to implement the basic task of Li De Shu Ren." The education of honest and clean government is an important part of the basic task of Building Morality and cultivating people, so the ideological and political course should also be the key course of College Students' honest and clean education. How to give full play to the role of Ideological and political courses in incorruptible education and how to give full play to its effectiveness is another important research topic proposed for ideological and political courses in Colleges and universities in the new era and new situation, which is also the focus of this paper.

Definition of College Students' Incorruption Education

In the opinions on Further Strengthening and improving ideological and political education of college students, the relevant contents of College Students' incorruptibility education are defined as: "guided and led by the socialist core value system, strengthen the education of legal system and integrity, strengthen the education of social morality, professional morality and family virtue, organize and study the policies and policies of the party and the state on the construction of party conduct, incorruptibility and Anti-corruption Policies, laws and regulations, etc." A kind of Xia Yunqiang and Zou Lanxiang think that college students' incorruptible education refers to the practice of educators using incorruptible cultural thoughts effectively, giving students direct or indirect influence with goals, organization and planning, so that college students can enhance their consciousness of self-discipline and self-control, cultivate their psychological quality of rejecting corruption, and gradually form a professional outlook of incorruptness and devotion to work.

According to Zhang Guochen, the purpose of carrying out incorruptible education in Colleges and universities is to guide college students to fully enhance their awareness of moral cultivation, laws and regulations, enhance their awareness of anti-corruption, enhance their moral quality, strengthen their scientific and cultural knowledge reserve, establish correct world outlook, outlook on life and values, and play a role in promoting the theme, inspiring and inspiring people's hearts, so as to guide college students to consciously identify themselves and actively build a solid foundation The spiritual barrier, standing on the high ground of personality, keeps a thousand pure souls. Chinese style

Experts and scholars have made their own definition of College Students' incorruptibility education, which is mainly discussed from one or two aspects of values, legal consciousness, moral cultivation and professional quality, providing rich and valuable reference materials for the research of College Students' incorruptibility education. However, it seems that there are few ways to analyze the incorruptible education from the perspective of Ideological and political courses. The author tries to elaborate the idea of how to realize the incorruptible education in Ideological and political courses. The author believes that the incorruptible education of college students should be based on the characteristics of College Students' own growth, and fully integrate the incorruptible education with the world outlook, outlook on life, values, ideals and beliefs, and socialist core values in Ideological and political courses. By combining knowledge systems such as outlook, moral concept and legal knowledge, the integrity education is reasonably integrated into each chapter of the theory to guide college students to firm their faith, enhance their awareness of integrity, cultivate the moral quality of self-discipline and self-control, and consciously practice the practice of honesty, integrity and self-discipline. The main task of College Students' Incorruption Education is to cultivate and guide them to become a strong force with incorruptible morality and behavior, and actively safeguard the public interest, so as to promote the building and maintenance of incorruption and carry forward.

The Current Situation of College Students' Understanding of Incorruption Education

This survey is conducted by means of questionnaire survey, aiming at the current situation of College Students' awareness of incorruptible education, including what is incorruptible education, what is included, whether there are incorruptible problems in college students' daily life, what is incorruptible behavior, whether it is necessary to carry out incorruptible education for college students, what are the objects of incorruptible education, etc., facing 19, 18 and 17 levels A total of 300 questionnaires were issued, 289 were collected and 278 were valid.

From Figure 1, it can be seen that college students do not have a comprehensive understanding of the content of integrity education. Many places are limited to the traditional thought, which is considered to be the content that should be involved in the official or leadership level. Many students do not think that the phenomena of College Students' daily life, such as abiding by school discipline, honesty in examinations, thrifty and thrifty, and class election not canvassing votes, belong to the content of integrity education.

From Figure 2, it can be seen that 35% of students think it is unnecessary or unnecessary for college students to understand the necessity of incorruptible education, which is enough to see that there are still many students who have deviation on the necessity of incorruptible education and think that incorruptible education should be faced with the people who go to work and serve as leaders, and they are totally unnecessary as college students.

(Chart-3)

Figure 3. The Knowledge of Honesty Education was acquired through What Means

From the above investigation and research, we can see that college students do not have a comprehensive understanding of the content of the integrity education, the importance of the integrity education of college students is not in place, and the access to the integrity education is mostly from the network news, which urgently requires students to give full play to their main channel role in the integrity education of college students, especially according to the growth characteristics and psychology of college students Characteristics, life and learning characteristics of timely integrity education, for college students to the community to lay a good integrity education, help them to establish a correct concept of integrity. Among the ways to achieve integrity education in schools, the data in Figure 4 shows that college students can fully affirm that ideological and political education is an important way to achieve integrity education. In view of the above situation, the author tries to study how to effectively realize the incorruptible education in the ideological and political class.

The Path of College Students' Honesty Education in Ideological and Political Education

The Embodiment of Incorruption Education in the Course of Ideological and Political Education.

(1) Combining honesty education with ideal and belief education

The ideal and faith education in the ideological and political course is to guide college students to firmly take Marxism theory as guidance, establish correct world outlook, outlook on life and values, take "serving the people and contributing to the society" as their life pursuit, maintain a serious, pragmatic, optimistic, positive and enterprising attitude towards life, and take "whether to use their own labor and intelligence for the country and society" As a standard to measure the value of one's life, one should make contributions and serve the people wholeheartedly. ". The correct world outlook, outlook on life and values will help college students respect the objective laws, see the essence through complex affairs, not be affected by various decadent concepts abroad, recognize the wrong concepts of money worship, hedonism and extreme individualism in time, and practice integrity and self-discipline.

We should guide college students to establish the common ideal of socialism with Chinese characteristics and the lofty ideal of communism, consciously become believers and practitioners of the ideal of communism, and strive for the lofty ideal and belief. With such lofty ideals and beliefs in mind, college students can overcome difficulties, resist temptations, overcome difficulties and cut through thorns in the face of various challenges and temptations with amazing perseverance, and achieve and shape themselves in ordinary posts.

(2) Honesty education in Chinese spiritual theory

"To realize the Chinese dream of the great rejuvenation of the Chinese nation, we must carry forward the Chinese spirit, that is, the national spirit with patriotism as the core and the spirit of the times with reform and innovation as the core. Contemporary college students bear the era mission of national rejuvenation and strive to be loyal patriots and pioneers in the era. "

In the 5000 years of history, the Chinese nation has formed a national spirit with patriotism as the core, which embodies the spirit of creation, struggle, unity and dream. Since the reform and opening up, the advanced models, moral models, era models and hero groups of all walks of life reflect the value pursuit of "fairness and justice, honesty and fraternity, honesty and devotion, dedication to work, and indifference The professional character of fame and wealth and dedication vividly shows young students the example image of self-serving, thrifty, hard work and simple, and dedication ", and encourages college students to inherit the example power, start from the small things around them, improve the ability of integrity and self-discipline, and inherit the spirit of China.

(3) The core values of socialism show the education of integrity

The core values show the spiritual pursuit of the nation and the state, and reflect the standard norms of social judgment. The socialist core values are the common values pursued by the Chinese people. Among them, the pursuit of "equality, rule of law, justice" and other values answers what kind of society to build, and honesty is the embodiment of social fashion to realize this pursuit of social values; "patriotism, dedication, integrity, friendliness" answers what kind of citizens to cultivate, including social morality, professional morality, family virtue, personal morality and other aspects The integrity is the moral requirement of Chinese citizens.

(4) Honesty education in moral education

Xi Jinping stressed: moral construction is important to inspire people to produce good moral emotion and will, cultivate moral sense of responsibility and mission, enhance the ability of moral practice, especially the consciousness and initiative of practice. In the course of Ideological and political education, the construction of social morality, professional morality, family virtue and personal morality is emphasized. The social morality emphasizes civilization, etiquette, national and collective property, discipline and law-abiding. The professional morality advocates dedication, honesty, justice, serving the masses and contributing to the society. The family virtue advocates diligence, thrift, and the personal morality emphasizes falseness They are the contents of Incorruption Education, which contains Incorruption Education in the course of Ideological and political education.

(5) Honesty education in the education of rule of law

At the two plenary session of the eighteen Central Commission for Discipline Inspection, general secretary Xi Jinping pointed out that we should continue to comprehensively strengthen the construction of punishing and preventing corruption system, strengthen anti-corruption education and clean government culture construction, improve the power operation restriction and supervision system, strengthen the anti-corruption national legislation, strengthen the construction of internal anti-corruption laws and regulations, and deepen the reform of multiple fields and links of corruption to ensure the country's development. Family organs exercise their power in accordance with the statutory authority and procedures. We should strengthen the restriction and supervision of the operation of power, put power in the cage of the system, and form a punishment mechanism that does not dare to corrupt, a prevention mechanism that cannot corrupt, and a guarantee that is not perishable. " The legal education in the ideological and political course is mainly through further learning Marxist legal theory, in-depth understanding of the characteristics and operation system of socialist law, training legal thinking, respect and maintenance of legal authority, driving the whole society to uphold morality, be honest and self-discipline, and strive to be a model of law-abiding usage.

Summary

College life is a crucial stage in life. In this stage, we need to establish a correct world outlook, outlook on life and values. Honesty education plays an important role in this critical period, which will certainly affect the behavior choice of college students when they go out of campus and become the backbone of society, and will eventually have a profound significance for the inheritance of excellent traditional culture and the reconstruction of social fashion. Ideological and political course is the key course of College Students' incorruptible education. As an important ideological and political course, ideological and political course should give full play to its important role in incorruptible education, guide college students to firmly establish incorruptible values, practice incorruptible and self-discipline, and inherit the broad incorruptible culture.
